$450 BILLION

The cost of actively disengaged employees in the US, due to lost productivity

Consider this...

- Attrition rates nearly double for employees with low engagement;
- Cost of replacing a mid-level manager averages 150% of their annual salary;
- Organizational culture is directly linked with organizational performance;
- Firms with performance-enhancing cultures outperform their counterparts on nearly every conceivable financial measure.

2:1

The ratio by which companies with superior cultures have outperformed the S&P 500

What if you had accurate insight into the unseen motivations and assumptions that shape the performance and culture of your organization?

FIRST 50

An Organization Audit from TurningWest quantifies the health of your Operations and Culture in 78 areas so that you can strategically build your capacities, address your concerns, and leverage your strengths.

Our Organization Audit measures your performance in the following areas (partial list):

Operations	Organization Culture
Corporate Recordkeeping	Leadership
Human Resources	Values – Mission - Vision
Project Management	Organizational Health
Communications/Public Relations	Team Functioning
Management	Organizational Structure
Strategic Relationships	Governance

EVERY ORGANIZATION HAS A CULTURE

Not every culture promotes performance … How about yours?
